

Dear Yale Jewish Community,

As the holiday approaches, we at Slifka Center are sending you and your family wishes first for health and safety - and for a Passover as beautiful and joyous as possible when we cannot be with so many of the people we love.

Below are some of the resources prepared by Slifka Center's staff and students to make this holiday more meaningful for you and your communities:

Guidance Preparing for your Seder from Slifka Center's Rabbis
\(recorded Zoom meeting, 50 minutes\)

Haggadah Supplements:

The Shabbath 2020 Haggadah Supplement - Chag HaAviv

The Coronavirus Supplement to A Different Night and A Night To Remember

Rabbi Jason Rubenstein's Letters on Passover and Coronavirus

Please do not hesitate to reach out if we can be of assistance to you at any way in these strange and trying times.

May you have a sweet, redemptive Passover,

Uri Cohen, Executive Director of Slifka Center

Rabbi Jason Rubenstein, Howard M. Holtzmann Jewish Chaplain at Yale
