

The Joseph Slifka Center for Jewish Life at Yale is seeking to hire an engaging, dynamic rabbinic/seminary intern for a part-time position that will focus on working with graduate and professional students at Yale. The intern will report to the Howard M. Holtzmann Jewish Chaplain and function as a member of Slifka's Student Life Team. The intern will focus on outreach, one-on-one conversations, supporting student leadership, and facilitating programs for graduate and professional students.

What You'll Do

- Engage graduate students, including those already involved with Slifka grad student groups and those who are not yet connected, through
  - Regular meetings with graduate student leaders
  - 3-4 coffee conversations with new students each week
- Support graduate student leaders with logistics, planning, and budgeting resources
- Establish a network to connect graduate students with each other, in collaboration with graduate student leaders
- Lead one graduate student learning series or programmatic opportunity each semester
- Contribute to other areas of Slifka Center's student-facing work as relevant for holidays, moments of communal crisis, as needed
- Staff one Shabbat each month
- Attend weekly Student Life Team Meetings

What You'll Bring to the Job

- Enthusiasm for working with graduate and professional students in a university setting
- A belief in the organizing work of supporting student leaders in jointly creating a community of meaning and purpose
- A love of programming that is fun, engaging, and Jewishly meaningful
- Excitement for working with a pluralistic staff and student body that embraces all kinds of Jewish backgrounds and experiences

What You'll Receive

- Weekly supervision by a Slifka staff member
- Learning how one of the most vibrant Hillels works, thinks, and learns
- A stipend of $12,000
- Travel and lodging expenses will be covered by Slifka Center
- Meals in Kikar Schusterman, our Kosher dining hall, when on campus
-

Dates: August 2023-May 2024, with possibility of extending for a second year.

To apply: Email rachel.leiken@yale.edu with resume and cover letter.